- viii. Reporting to the Board on the compliance of this Regulation.

5. Prohibition on Dealing, communicating or counselling on matters relating to Insider trading

No insider shall

- i. either on their own behalf or on behalf of any other person, deal in Securities of the Company when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information;
- ii. Communicate, provide or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6. Preservation of Confidentiality of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information/Confidential Information”

Insiders and their immediate relatives shall not communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

Need to know basis - Price Sensitive Information of the Company is to be handled on a "need to know" basis i.e. should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or apprehension of misuse of the information. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

Limited access to confidential information - All manual files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. All Computer files must have adequate security.

7. Trading Restrictions:

All designated persons and employees of the company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the company only in a valid trading window after obtaining pre-clearance from the Compliance officer and shall not enter into any transaction in the company's securities during the closure of trading window

8. Trading Plan:

Any insider who may be in possession of unpublished price sensitive information is entitled to formulate a trading plan enabling him/her to trade in a complaint manner. The compliance officer is required to review the trading plan to assess whether the plan potentially violates the Regulations. The trading plan approved by the compliance officer should be notified to the stock exchanges where the securities are listed.

Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The compliance officer may seek express undertaking necessary for the assessment, approval and implementation of trading plan. An approved trading plan is irrevocable. Insider cannot execute any trade outside the scope of the trading plan.

Trading plan shall state either the value of the trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or the dates on which such trades shall be executed. Implementation of a trading plan shall not commence if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan is not generally available at the time of commencement of the implementation. Compliance officer may defer the commencement until such unpublished price sensitive information is generally available.

9. Trading Window

The trading window shall be closed 7 days prior to UPSI is unpublished. During closure of trading window, Designated Persons shall not trade in the securities of the Company.

After taking into account various factors including UPSI in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, the Compliance Officer shall determine timing of re-opening of the trading window however in any event it shall be forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

All directors/officers/designated employees of the company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only when the trading window is open and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the company's securities during the periods when trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the compliance officer or the Managing Director from time to time.

10. Pre-clearance of transactions

All designated persons of the company, who intend to deal in the securities of the company in any manner whatsoever, shall apply in the prescribed form to the Compliance officer for the pre-clearance together with necessary undertaking as prescribed in Form No.1.

The compliance officer shall grant the approval or reject the application within two working days of the receipt of application for pre-clearance. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any UPSI. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

Such person shall execute the order for which pre-clearance has been obtained within seven trading days and provide confirmation of deal to the compliance officer in form No. 2 of such approval or with in such lesser period as may be prescribed by the compliance officer. The details of the transaction shall be communicated to the compliance officer within two working days thereof. In case, the person is unable to execute the order within seven working days after the approval or within such lesser period as prescribed by the compliance officer, a fresh application for pre-clearance (as mentioned above) shall be made.

11. Disclosures required to be furnished

Initial Disclosure:

Every promoter, key managerial personnel and director of the company shall disclose their holding of securities of the company as within thirty days of these regulations taking effect or from the company getting listed on stock exchange in such form as may be prescribed under this regulation

Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter shall disclose his holding of Securities as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

In the event a new immediate relative comes into being or any existing immediate relative ceases to be dependent, the concerned Designated Person shall forthwith give a notice in writing of such change to the compliance officer.

Continual Disclosure:

Every promoter, employee and director of the Company shall disclose to the Company the number of such Securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the Securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rupees Ten lacs.

The company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

12. Penalty/Punishments for contravention of Code

Any Designated Person who contravenes the Code of Conduct shall be penalised and shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension etc.

The Company shall promptly inform Securities and Exchange Board of India regarding any violation of the Code of Conduct.

The action by the company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

13. Intimation to SEBI

In case the compliance officer and / or the company observe that there has been violation of these Regulations, the company shall inform SEBI of such violations for appropriate actions. SEBI can initiate necessary proceedings for violation of any of these regulations.

14. Communication

This code will be uploaded on the website of the company. This code will be disseminated to all designated persons who shall abide by the same. The responsibility for complying with the provisions of the regulations shall vest with each designated persons including any violation by their immediate relatives.

15. Amendment of the Code

This code and any subsequent amendments thereto, shall be promptly intimated to the stock exchange where the securities of the company are listed.
